Firemen to Release New Movie Soon

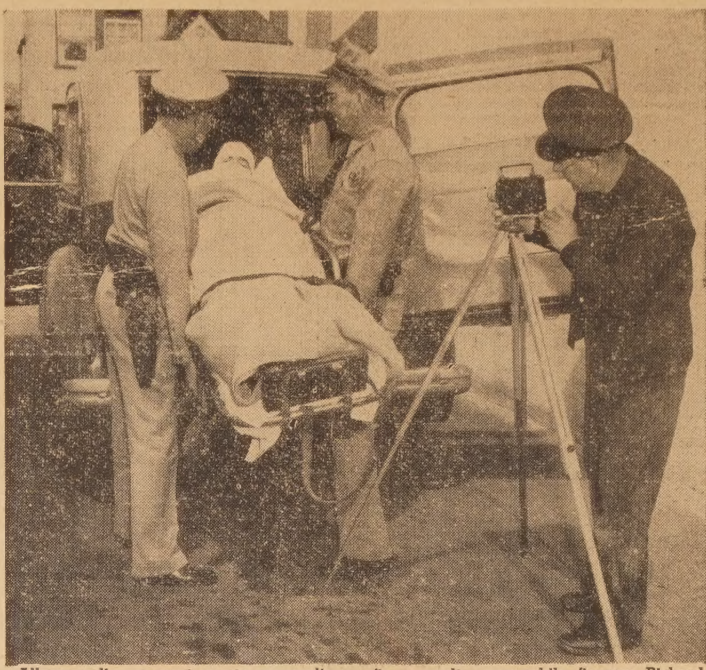

"Vigilance—the Price of Security" is the title of the forthcoming movie to be released by the Albany Fire Department in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week. Starring members of the Police and Fire Departments, the 30-minute color production based on common fire hazards is under direction of Fire Chief Fred Pimental and photographer Richard McSheehy. Dominick De Giglio is starred in a hospital scene, "Ignorance and Stubility," with police officers James McLeod and Verne Freeman. Two Albany Hospital nurses in a supporting cast. Policewoman Sigrid Oakley is starred in the skit "The Careless Housewife," while the hazards of amateur electrician are shown in a scene played by Don Day. The importance of good housekeeping is emphasized in a scene played by Paul Hogue. "Vigilance—the Price of Security" is the fourth production released by the Albany Firemen, and will be shown to schools and civic organizations.

Football Parade Greatest Yet' Says Berkeley

The collegiate football season will be a mighty send off Friday at Berkeley's Fourth Annual Football Festival, with major universities and colleges throughout the West participating in the celebration. Highlight of the Festival will be a parade beginning at 8 a. m., the eve of the opening game between U. C.'s Bears and Santa Clara's Broncos. Referred to as the West's greatest night spectacle, the parade will feature nine divisions and more than 100 floats, including floats, civic and military dignitaries, bands, mounted police and motion picture stars, as well as an abundance of pulchritudinous coeds. Leading the parade will be the majors and other officials of cities throughout the Bay Area and such personalities as Frankie Albert of the Forty Niners and Red Grimes. Parade Director Marshall Craig of this year's array will be the best so far and the floats the most beautiful. Floats have been decorated by merchants, universities, chambers of commerce from over the area, and to make the parade complete, the Committee has named the most popular bands in the Navy, Army, Marine Corps, including the famed 100th U. S. Band. Following over the parade and festivities will be "King Football," who, with his paper mache football head, lends much of the fun and spirit to the annual event. By his side will be his "Queen," selected Thursday evening in eight coeds representing western schools. The parade will commence at University Ave. and California St., heading eastward on University Street, then southward on Alameda St. to Carleton St.

Community Church to Dedicate New Organ

The Albany Community Methodist Church was the owner of a new Estey reed organ this week. The organ was purchased with an amount of money established some time ago in memory of prominent deceased members, along with liberal contributions from members and friends. The organ will be formally dedicated at the regular 11 a. m. service Sunday, October 2 by the Rev. Robert Benefiel, pastor. The day has been set aside as "I Bring My Neighbor Sunday." At the same time, new members will be received and children baptised. In addition to the new organ, the church has been the recipient of a piano donated by a local businessman. The trustees have announced that a sprinkling system for the lawn will be installed soon along with landscaping and beautifying the church property. Extensive repairs have been made in the classrooms, the office and the auditorium.

Albany police re-enact events surrounding a fire casualty case while fireman Richard McSheehy films the incident as part of a realistic movie being made by the Fire Department for Fire Prevention programs. Left to right are Officers James McLeod, Clinton Purcell, the patient, and Dominic Digiglio.

ALBANY SOROPTIMIST SCRIBBLINGS

It's a sad day indeed when the Soroptimist of Albany can't sing, but Wednesday was a glad day. Janet O'Keefe put the girls through their vocal pace with a "Happy Birthday" to Kay Fritz and "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet," honoring Minnie Lou Eakin. Minnie Lou was wearing a saucy little hat lavished with feathers.

Three of the members were happy to introduce guests: Mary Loos had her sister-in-law from New Jersey, Mrs. Mary Bremer; Ruth Tonkin introduced her mother, Mrs. L. F. Batt of Del Rio; and Sally Nelson presented her daughter, Peggy, now a freshman at Cal.

Hazel Sager, visiting Soroptimist from San Francisco, was also a very welcome guest at the Wednesday luncheon.

President Nell reminded members that the regional conference would be held in Berkeley in October. She urged a 100 per cent registration, so that maybe we could win the attendance award.

Program Chairman Edith Lennox introduced Kay Fritz and Minnie Lou Eakin, who regaled us with vacation anecdotes. Kay told of the 18-mile horseback ride they took at Lassen Park, without benefit of a drop of water, while Minnie Lou related her trip to the dedication of the Soroptimist Memorial Redwood Grove in Ukiah.

Parentetically, Minnie Lou says that when gloves and hankies fail to attract the opposite sex, try a bunch of keys. They are a sure-fire attention-getter.

In keeping with the monthly theme of "safety," Officer Ralph Jensen, who has charge of the Junior Traffic Patrol of Albany Schools, will be guest speaker next Wednesday. He will be presented by Myrtle McLean, program chairman.

Alan and John Spivak, left to right, are having barrels of fun making the initial contribution to the Child Welfare and Rag Drive, to be sponsored by the MacGregor P.T.A. September 19 through 24. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Spivak, of 15 San Carlos Ave. With the exception of lingerie, all clothing and rags over one-foot square will be accepted. Proceeds from the rag sales will go for the benefit of the P.T.A.'s project fund, while wearable clothing will be retained in the P.T.A. clothing room.

$310,000 Goal Asked for Community Chest Drive

Recognition of the community's obligation to give adequate support to welfare services is emphasized by announcement of the $310,000 goal set for the 27th annual fund campaign of the Berkeley-Albany-Kensington Community Chest, President Herman Spindt said today.

The figure was announced after a considered study by the board of directors on recommendations from the budget and campaign committees, headed respectively by Olaf Lundberg and Norval P. Goelzer. The goal amount is higher by four per cent than last year's and is judged to be the minimum amount needed to cover essential services of 22 Red Feather agencies whose needs have necessarily increased.

"Words cannot stress too strongly the need for fulfilling the community obligation which we have undertaken in behalf of the community and for its enriching benefits," Spindt said. "One thing endangers the successful outcome of this campaign—the regrettable fact, born out by statistics, that our area's average gift to the Chest is low in proportion to income and in comparison with other Chest cities in the United States. "It is our heartfelt hope that the citizens of our campaign area will recognize this danger for what it might entail—the possible disintegration of the Community Chest function which now combines 23 appeals in one drive and which keeps our giving on a volunteer basis.

"All Chest leaders join with me in hoping that residents of our area will acknowledge this campaign as a challenge to their community spirit and as a democratic privilege to be exercised for the good of the home folks.

"Contributors will find a simple measure by which to gauge their gifts as the equivalent of one day's pay. Everybody gives—everybody benefits—that is our slogan," Spindt concluded. The goal provides less than 10 per cent to cover all administrative and campaign expenses.

Mrs. Walton to Speak

Mrs. Delsa Walton, president of the Board of Education, will speak on the coming School Bond election at two room teas sponsored by MacGregor P.T.A. on September 21 and 29.

Sports Show Program Set

Final plans for Albany's First Annual Sports Show will be completed at the first regular meeting of the Cornell-Vista Dads' Club 8 p. m. Friday at the Cornell School Cafeteria.

Sponsored by the Dads' Club, the big sports show is scheduled for the evening of September 30 at the Albany High School Gymnasium.

Program Chairman Al Liotta said today that a fine Trampoline Act from San Francisco Boys' Club has been lined up, and that several acts of fencing, wrestling, boxing and jui jitsu have been booked from the athletic department of the University of California.

"This is by no means the complete program," Liotta said. "Many more acts that will appeal to the whole family are now being arranged.

Dan Thomas, chairman of ticket sales, said that a 1950 Bendix television set, to be awarded as door prize, will soon be on display at one of the local merchants.

DESSERT WHIST TUESDAY

The Albany Mothers' Club will sponsor a dessert whist 12:30 p. m. September 20 at the Albany Y. M. C. A., according to Mrs. Doris Ramsay, chairman. The public is invited.

Excerpts From The Avenues

By GENE EPPLER

Albany Bowl has recorded some record bowling scores during the past week. . . . Geo. Sikol of the Bay Area Majors put 714 maples in the pits for three games. . . . Joe Whitestone, of the same league, crashed out a 257 single. . . . Hal Berg, another Bay Area performer, was close with a 256. . . . Doty Hacker has the high single for the ladies to date with 234.

An excerpt from "Kacy" Ward's Gazette column says: "The Solano Ave. merchants are going to make it a fight to the finish on parking meters and parallel parking. . . . They are compiling facts and figures and turning their case over to the Chamber of Commerce for action to remedy the situation. . . . If the City Council stays stiff-necked, attorneys may take it from there. . . . If a court battle won't settle it, it will probably go to the voters. "Berkeley's officialdom will get an eyeful when the Solano Ave. businessmen produce figures to show what parking meters and parallel parking has done to trade in that area. . . ."

Rotary's guest speaker was unable to make the Monday luncheon this week, so President Ted Williams called on several members for impromptu talks. . . . Dr. Paul C. Bryan spoke briefly on the importance of supporting the coming School Bond election. . . . Chief Fred Pimental told his "rags to riches" story in the milk business. . . . Bill Simmons and Mickey Ettingoff also gave brief resumes of their history. . . . With the appearance of "Little Max" (the comic book) on the S-P news stand, 'tis generally believed that Max Sr. and Mickey are in the publishing business.

Robert Kahn will be guest speaker Monday. . . . He'll speak on "Working With the Russians in the Last War." . . . He is the grandson of the late B. F. Kahn, founder of Kahn's Dept. Store.

Dave Webb, of 1026 Stannage Ave., took five first and five second place awards in San Leandro's recent dahlia show. He said the largest bloom was 16 inches. . . . Credit line on a page-one picture in the S. F. Call-Bulletin Monday was Amateur Photographer Betty Green Rhodes, Albany city hall employee. The half-page picture showed the English ship on the rocks off Point Arena. . . . Isabelle Betten, of 605 Carmel Ave., took top honors in the California Women's Bait Casting Tournament held last Sunday in Golden Gate Park.

Albany Exchange's "wine connoisseurs" are in for a treat next Tuesday evening. . . . Henry Henriksen has arranged for a representative from a well-known wine producer to come out and give the latest on the wine industry. . . . He promises good pictures and samples which, in itself, will insure a good time.

Donald McBain, newly appointed assistant health officer, completed his first sanitary check of local business houses this week, finding most in top shape. . . . Don said all the owners have been most cooperative and should be commended for keeping their places on the immaculate side. . . . He said any resident with a complaint in regard to sanitary conditions should submit it to him "in writing" at his office, 1181 Solano Ave.

City Asks State Aid in $35,000 Sewer Project; Protests Key Service Cut

Albany Councilmen approved four resolutions Monday night asking the State for $35,000 for sewer work in the city. The State appropriation is to be matched by local funds. The projects include:

Construction and separation of sanitary and storm sewers on Marin Ave., $20,000.

Construction of a sanitary sewer on Hillside Ave., $8000.

Construction of a sanitary sewer at Washington Ave. and Pomona Ave., $1500.

Construction of sanitary sewers in the southeast section of Albany, $6000.

In other business, the Council adopted a resolution protesting any curtailment of service or raise in rates by the Key System which would affect the Albany area.

Councilman Frank Hays pointed out that he didn't think the curtailment would affect Albany directly but would affect residents when they transferred to other lines outside the city.

A communication from Police Inspector Arthur K. Smith, acting police chief in absence of Chief Stanley Williams, pointed out that during certain hours of the day the city is without police protection, since all three officers are on duty at school crossings.

Smith said all three crossings are covered between noon and 1 p. m. and 2 to 2:30 p. m. and between 3 and 3:40 p. m.

The matter was referred to Councilman Charles F. Graeber to be discussed with the Board of Education. In the meantime, Smith suggested hiring temporary school guards on an hourly basis.

The Council also instructed City Attorney George Glavinovich to draw up a contract with Allen Grimes, Oakland attorney, for the complete revision of the city charter.

Under terms of the contract, a maximum cost for the revision was set at $1750, but officials said it would probably come to considerably less.

Councilman Hays termed the present charter as "badly outmoded."

Mrs. Lucille Johnson, clerk in the engineering department, was appointed deputy city clerk by unanimous vote of the Council.

Association and its affiliated clubs. Arrangements for the loan of a new care were handled through Alden Macomber, district manager for California State Automobile Association.
Driver education, the classroom phase of the course, covering the principles of highway safety, motor vehicle law and other elements of safe driving, was made a compulsory course for public high school students by the Legislature early in the 1949 session, and the bill was immediately signed by Governor Earl Warren.

So widespread has the movement become that last year, 340,000 students in the nation were given drivers training, in 6000 high schools.
